

Speech from the Sub-editor of SCMP

It was our greatest honor to have Mr. Jamie Lam, a sub-editor from South China Morning Post, to give our S.6 students a speech on the making of a newspaper on 26 September 2019. The highlight of the speech was his sharing on writing an authentic news article. Our students will undoubtedly benefit greatly from the “tutorial” on polishing their writing skills for HKDSE Paper 2. Students were enthusiastic in raising questions throughout the speech. He rounded off the speech by inviting our students to join the Young Post Junior Reporters’ Club if they possess characteristics such as being always skeptical, creative, humble, and very thick skinned. The speech ended with laughter and a warm round of applause.
